Car Hire & Airport Transfers

It is possible to reach us by public transport, but bus services are limited (see separate info sheet). It really is advisable to hire a car if you want to explore Montenegro, especially if you want to venture North to the beautiful National Parks.

In recent years it has become difficult to obtain a hire car at short notice so try to book in advance. There are good deals to be had from car hire brokers.

An international driving licence is not required if you have an EU issued photocard licence (Since Brexit, the UK licence is no longer regarded as a European licence, technically you therefore require an international driving licence but if you are stopped, very few police will request one).

Day trips in a car to Croatia, Bosnia and Albania are possible from Camp Full Monte but we advise you to double check that the hire company include sufficient insurance for all the countries you want to visit.

If you are arriving at Dubrovnik airport in Croatia, it's sometimes cheaper to book an airport transfer to Camp Full Monte from a Montenegro transfer company and hire the car in Montenegro. Some hire car companies will meet you at Dubrovnik Airport and have your hire car waiting at Camp Full Monte. Typically, a transfer from Dubrovnik Airport to Camp Full Monte will cost around 50€.

If you are flying to Tivat airport you should try to pick up your hire car at the airport. And then drive from Tivat to Camp Full Monte by car. This journey can take up to 2 hours at the height of the season. One of our partners offers a minibus transfer service from Tivat airport but no rates or timetables were available for 2024 at the time of writing. Ask us again when making a booking enquiry.

If you are flying into Podgorica airport the drive from Podgorica to Camp Full Monte can take even longer, up to 4 hours. Again, it is best to pick up the hire car from Podgorica airport. Transfer services from Podgorica to Camp Full Monte can be difficult to arrange and will be exorbitant, but we will try to get you a quote if you need one.
