Directions to Camp Full Monte

By Public Transport - From Dubrovnik Airport

There are no direct buses from the airport to Montenegro. You will first have to get the airport shuttle from the airport to Dubrovnik City bus station and then get a bus to the city of Herceg Novi in Montenegro. Technically, the bus driver is not allowed to stop at any point in between but given our close proximity to the Montenegro border we would advise that you simply get off at the border. Then simply send us a text message and by prior arrangement, for a nominal fee of €2 we will come down to meet you.

Please note there are two border checkpoints. One on the Croatian side and one on the Montenegro side with a distance of about 2km in between. Don't get off at the first (Croatian) one!

By Public Transport - From within Montenegro or other Balkan countries

The nearest major bus terminal to Camp Full Monte is in the nearby city of Herceg Novi. This is well served with buses from other towns and cities both in Montenegro and other Balkan Countries. Enquire at your nearest bus station or stop.

There is a bus to and from our local village of Prijedor (5 mins walk from Camp Full Monte) it runs Mon-Saturday and leaves Herceg Novi bus station at 6.00am and 13.30 and leaves Prijedor for Herceg Novi at 6:30am and 14:00.

There is also a more regular bus service (about once an hour) that goes between Herceg Novi and the border crossing at Debeli Brijeg . Times vary so enquire at the bus station. Once at the border and by prior arrangement, we can come down to pick you up for a nominal fee.

A taxi from Herceg Novi to Camp Full Monte should cost between €10-15. Try to get a 'badged' cab rather than an unofficial taxi. If you arrive at the bus station looking for a cab, it's best to turn right and walk to the parking area opposite and a little further up the hill where the proper taxis wait.

By Car – From Podgorica Airport

You can navigate from Podgorica to Tivat by following signs to: Cetinje, Budva and then Tivat. From this direction, Tivat airport will be on your left hand side. Follow directions as in the section below.

By Car – From Tivat Airport

Turn left out of the airport and continue straight. You will pass through the town of Tivat itself (some 4kms from the airport) following signs to Herceg Novi. A further 4-5kms on, there is a 'trajekt' or car ferry that takes you across the bay to save the long drive around. It's signposted and there are road markings that direct you off left into the ferry queue.

You need to buy a ticket before you board the ferry (current cost: €4.50 for a car). Once off the ferry, turn left and keep going straight, heading towards and through Herceg Novi. Follow directions as in the section below.

By Car - From Herceg Novi

Take the only road out of Herceg Novi heading towards the Debeli Brijeg border crossing in the direction of Dubrovnik. Immediately before the border, you will see a road off to the right, signposted 'Prijevor'. Take this road - it runs parallel to the border crossing road. Now follow text in italics in the section below!

By Car – From Dubrovnik Airport

It's a straight road from Dubrovnik Airport in Croatia to the Montenegrin border (Debeli Brijeg). You turn left out of the airport and keep going! There are two border crossing checkpoints. You first have to go through the Croatian border and then there is another border crossing a few kms down the road to enter Montenegro.

The turning to Camp Full Monte is immediately on your left as you drive away from the Montenegro customs checkpoint. It is signposted to 'Prijevor' and is easy to miss. If you pass a 'LUK Oil' petrol station on your left after crossing the Montenegro border then you have missed our turning - so turn around and head back to the border checkpoint and look out for the 'Prijevor' signposted road which will now be on your right.

Once on the Prijevor road you will feel as if you are going back on yourself as you drive alongside the border you have just crossed!

Within about 0.5km you will see an old wooden ship on the right hand side. Just after this wooden boat there is a road that leads up and off to the right, signposted to Prijedor. Take this road. You stay on this road with its many hairpins (some less gentle than others!) going ever upward. There are no proper roads off this main route for 2.5 km so you can't get lost.

Eventually you come to a large open turning area in front of what looks like a small village school building, with a bench on the right hand side. Do not enter or cross the turning area but take the hairpin turn on the left. It's a smaller, rougher track that might lead you to think "this can't be right" but it is!

Within 0.5km you will see an Eko Kamp sign & palm leaf fence on your left hand side – you've arrived! Park parallel to the fence and come to the lower gate where the Camp Full Monte sign is and ring the bell.

Car Hire & Airport Transfers

It really is advisable to hire a car if you want to explore Montenegro, especially if you want to venture North to the beautiful National Parks.

It is essential to book your car hire in advance if you want to get a good deal from the Airports. We don't have any preferred partners, but if you do an internet search you will find a wealth of suppliers. We advise you to check that you have sufficient insurance for all the countries you want to visit.

If you intend to spend some time relaxing and only making it as far as the beach & the nearest town (20 mins by car – we offer daily transfers for a few euros), then it may be more economical to hire a car for the few days you decide to venture further. With a day or two's notice, we can arrange hire car for you with our local partners from €40.00 per day. Please mention this in your booking if possible. An international driving licence is not required if the driving licence includes a photo card (UK drivers: please note that the old style green document alone is not sufficient – bring both parts of your licence).

If you are travelling from Dubrovnik airport in Croatia and do decide to hire a car in Montenegro, it's advisable to book an airport transfer to Camp Full Monte. We can arrange the transfer for you through our local partners and you should expect to pay €35.00 each way. The cost may be more if you are a family of 4+ people travelling with lots of luggage.
