Getting to us by Public Transport

From Dubrovnik Airport

There are no direct buses from the airport to Montenegro. You will first have to get the airport shuttle from the airport to Dubrovnik City bus station and then get a bus to the city of Herceg Novi in Montenegro. Technically, the bus driver is not allowed to stop at any point in between but given our close proximity to the Montenegro border we would advise that you simply get off at the border. It's not an official bus stop but if you point up the hill & explain you're going to Prijedor, he should understand. Then simply send us a text message and by prior arrangement, for a nominal fee of €2 we will come down to meet you.

There is a petrol station a couple of minutes walk from the border, which is a good place to head to if you need toilet facilities, refreshments or use of a phone. We are well known there.

Please note there are two border checkpoints. One on the Croatian side and one on the Montenegro side with a distance of about 2km in between. Do not get off at the first (Croatian) border checkpoint!

From within Montenegro or other Balkan countries

The nearest major bus terminal to Camp Full Monte is in the nearby city of Herceg Novi. This is well served with buses from other towns and cities both in Montenegro and other Balkan Countries. Enquire at your nearest bus station or stop. There is a train from Belgrade in Serbia to Podgorica & Bar in Montenegro but no other train services run in the region.

There is a bus to and from our local village of Prijedor (5 mins walk from Camp Full Monte) it runs Mon-Saturday and leaves Herceg Novi bus station at 6.00am and 13.30 and leaves Prijedor for Herceg Novi at 6:30am and 14:00.

There is also a more regular bus service between Herceg Novi and the border crossing at Debeli Brijeg (ask for the Sutorina bus). Times vary so enquire at the bus station. Once at the border and by prior arrangement, we can come down to pick you up for a nominal fee.

A taxi from Herceg Novi to Camp Full Monte should cost between €10-15. Try to get a 'badged' cab rather than an unofficial taxi. If you arrive at the bus station looking for a cab, it's best to turn right and walk to the parking area opposite and a little further up the hill where the proper taxis wait.
